UNITED NATIONS CHILDREN'S HALLOWEEN BENEFIT FOR UNICEF

Children of the United Nations community and their parents - delegates and staff -- will be entertained by the TV star Sonny Fox, a magician and a fire eater at a Halloween Party for UNICEF, the United Nations Children's Fund, Thursday, October 30, 6 p.m. at the Dag Hammarskjold Auditorium. All news media are welcome.

The event is sponsored by the United Nations Meditation Group, which believes a spiritual approach as well as a political approach is necessary to bring about world peace. Halloween which falls on October 31, has been designated UNICEF DAY in the U.S.

Sri Chinmoy, Director of the United Nations Meditation Group will open the programme with a special meditation for the children. He will also present a check from proceeds of a bazaar sponsored by the Meditation Group to Mr. Henry Labouisse, Executive Director of UNICEF. Mr. Labouisse will also address the gathering.

Twenty-five Halloweens ago, a Sunday School class in Pennsylvania decided that rather than just collecting candy for themselves on Halloween, they would collect coins to help their less fortunate contemporaries in other parts of the world. They brought the proceeds, $17.00 to UNICEF. Within years, the idea had spread to every one of the 50 states in the U.S. and all provinces of Canada. In 1974, Halloween collections in North America amounted to some $4,000,000.
