

UN QUOTES

ABOUT U.N. BY SAI CHINMIY

The outer message of the United Nations is Peace. The inner message of the United Nations is Love. The inmost message of the United Nations is Oneness. * Peace we feel. Love we become. Oneness we manifest.

In order to know the soul-love of the United Nations, we have to choose to be free, and we have to be free to choose. When we are within the confines of history, we have to choose to be free.

The inner heart of the United Nations is flooded with peace. The outer heart of the United Nations is trying to spread peace all over the world. * The outer existence of the United Nations is a colossal hope. The inner existence of the United Nations is a fulfilling reality.

The goal of the United Nations is peace, world peace. The secret of the United Nations is sacrifice.

The United Nations is not a thing to appreciate, admire or adore. Rather, it is the way, the way of oneness, that leads us to the Supreme Oneness. * It is like a river flowing toward the source, the Ultimate Source. The United Nations is the way that wants to lead the world to the destined Goal, where Light and Delight reign supreme.

Let us only ask ourselves whether we are of the United Nations and for the United Nations. If we say we are of the United Nations, then our source is peace, infinite Peace. And if we say we are for the United Nations, then our manifestation is delight, eternal Delight.

A day will dawn when the vision of the United Nations will save the world. And when the reality of the United Nations starts bearing fruit, then the breath of Immortality will be a living reality on earth.

The United Nations sings one song: the song that says it is love-power that will conquer the world. No other power can conquer the world. * When love-power conquers, the conquest is not for the expansion of influence, but for the illumination of existence.

The United Nations is the meeting place for the big brothers and the small brother of the world.

Slowly and steadily the soul of the United Nations is offering its light to the body of the United Nations, which is the world.

Peace, freedom, progress, perfection—these are the four rungs of the cosmic ladder which the United Nations has perfectly housed in the unseen recesses of its heart.

The United Nations can teach us how to share...four principal things: the message of trust, the message of concern, the message of unity in diversity and the message of universal peace.

The message of the United Nations, the message of love, of brotherhood, of peace, of soulful sharing, can easily be received, embraced and executed by the entire world.

The United Nations tells us where truth is. World union tells us what truth is. Where is truth? Truth is in self-giving. What is truth? Truth is man's transformation of his earth-bound nature.

The United Nations and world union; the watchword must needs always be peace. Peace is found in self-giving and in our recognition of others' good and divine qualities. The more we see the divine qualities in others, the sooner we will establish world peace.

The United Nations is a group of pilgrims on a journey. As the pilgrims walk along the path of light toward the same destination, they feel mutual appreciation.* From appreciation comes love and from love comes oneness. He who is a true member of the United Nations treasures a shared life in a shared world.

The League of Nations was a tiny plant, but now it has grown into a hugh tree, the United Nations. * The time will come when the whole world will take rest at the foot of this tree *-- this tree of patience, this tree of compassion, this tree of love, this tree of universal oneness. * And one day we shall have to climb up the tree, pluck its most energising gruits and offer them to hungry humanity.
