

THE PEACE CONCERT

The Peace Concert by Sri Chinmoy, held at Lincoln Center's Avery Fisher Hall on 28 October, brought UN staff, delegates and the people of New York together in a musical invocation of peace. Sri Chinmoy played his own compositions on the flute, harmonium, Indian esraj and other instruments in celebration of the 40th Anniversary. The 40th Anniversary Peace Concert was a highlight of over 100 peace concerts he is giving worldwide.

Because of the great demand for tickets, a second concert was given 29 October at the Beacon Theater.
