

AMBASSADORS' MESSAGES TO THE PEACE RUN

"We at the Algerian Embassy are fully convinced that the Peace Run will greatly contribute to the achievement of a true and lasting peace in the world. By giving so many members of the human family the possibility to meet and get involved in the peace process, the Peace Run will certainly develop in the international community the awareness of the necessity of a permanent struggle for the cause of world peace."

-H.E. Mohammed Sahnoun, Ambassador, Democratic and Popular Republic of Algeria

"My country and I personally attach a great deal of value to the global campaign for peace. Yours is a noble cause which Botswana and its peace-loving people support unstintingly and wholeheartedly. Please accept our very best wishes for a successful Peace Run."

-H.E. Legwaila J.M.I. Legwaila, Ambassador, Permanent Representative of Botswana to the U.N.

"The Peace Run is one of the most appropriate means to bring about Unity among people of all nations, races, religions, young and old, men and women. Therefore, you have my support and that of my country, Burundi, for this wonderful idea."

-H.E. Jonathan Niyugenko, Ambassador, Permanent Representative of Burundi to the U.N.

"The Peace Run, covering 27,000 miles throughout the world, will be another monument of the spirit of peace-loving and friendship shared by the world peoples...To free our world from war and injustice, the torch of peace ought to be carried high from generation to generation."

-H. E. Han Xu, Ambassador to the U.S., People's Republic of China

"All men of good faith should commend and adhere to any endeavor serving as a source of union, understanding, solidarity, justice and peace among nations. It is in this context that the Sri Chinmoy Oneness-Home Peace Run initiative warrants our warmest compliments and sincere hope for the complete success of the message it intends to carry throughout the world."

-H.E. Carlos Tobar Zaldumbide, Ambassador, Permanent Representative of Ecuador to the U.N.

"I am very happy to wish the initiative the greatest success in serving the noble cause of world peace. I avail myself of this occasion to convey to you my best regards."

-H.E. Maurizio Bucci, Ambassador, Permanent Representative of Italy to the U.N.

"I am writing to express my sincerest support of the Peace Run...Needless to say, an effort devoted so such a lofty goal that involves the very foundation of human survival deserves the unqualified support and tribute from all peace loving nations, institutions and individuals. I am convinced that an event so organized and with such a level of participation should considerably contribute to the stimulation and promotion of the cause of international peace."

-H.E. Mohammed A. Abulhasan, Ambassador, Permanent Representative of Kuwait to the U.N.

"As the realization of peace has so far eluded the international community and as the Sri Chinmoy Oneness-Home Peace Run could contribute to world peace in some tangible way, I personally endorse it and it deserves the full support of all peace-loving individuals."

-H.E. Wilbert K. Chagula, Ambassador, Permanent Representative of Tanzania to the U.N.

"While commending you and your associates for this exceptional contribution to the cause of inter national peace, I am also happy to assure you of my support for this worthy endeavor."

-H. E. Sylvester Jarrett, Ambassador, Permanent Representative of Liberia to the U.N.

"Deeply conscious as we in Nepal are of the need and importance of Peace not only in ameliorating the divisions and deprivations afflicting mankind today but also for the very survival of human civilisation, I highly commend Sri Chinmoy's laudable effort in organising the Oneness-Home Peace Run."

-H.E. Jai Pratap Rana, Ambassador, Permanent Representative of Nepal to the U.N.

"Tunisia is in a position to understand and commend the ideas and action of the Sri Chinmoy Oneness-Home Peace Run, for our country believes peace is not only the concern of governments but of all citizens at large...What your organization is doing is to create a sense of involvement and awareness among all people, especially youth, that peace is a necessity without which neither development nor survival is possible."

-H.E. Mahmoud Mestiri, Ambassador, Permanent Representative of Tunesia to the U.N.

"The Peace Run gives us an opportunity to demonstrate that peace is the only thing that can keep our nations together as one united family. Only in a peaceful atmosphere can our children grow up to be responsible citizens and indeed, only peace can bring happiness to all of us. Your Peace Run will bring hope to all people of the world."

-H.E. J.M. Ngo, Ambassador, Permanent Representative of Zambia to the U.N.
