ERIC S. PETERSEN is a managing partner at the New York City law firm of Hawkins, Delafield & Wood, LLP. He was educated at Brown University and the University of Chicago Law School. Mr. Petersen has studied extensively Jefferson's reports, state papers, speeches, and twenty thousand letters, and has elegantly woven together thirty-four concise essays of profound wisdom on how to lead a meaningful life. The book is entitled Light and Liberty, Reflections on the Pursuit of Happiness. He lives in Connecticut and can be reached at <www.lightandliberty.org>

Liberty is freedom from coercion. Light is freedom from ignorance. Light and liberty, as Thomas Jefferson often wisely observed, indeed go together.

ERIC S. PETERSEN

WILLARD STERNE RANDALL, Historical Scholar in Residence at Champlain College in Vermont and Visiting Professor of History at John Cabot University in Rome, is the author of twelve books including five biographies, most recently Alexander Hamilton, A Life.

A Presidential Scholar, he is a former investigative reporter. He won the National Magazine Award for Public Service from Columbia Graduate School of Journalism, the Hillman Prize, the John Hancock Award for Excellence in Business Writing and the Loeb Award.

After graduate studies in history at Princeton, Randall turned to biography and has been nominated six times for the Pulitzer Prize, three times for his biographical writings.

Benjamin Franklin and His Son won a Frank Luther Mott Prize for Research from the Missouri Graduate School of Journalism. Benedict Arnold, Patriot and Traitor was a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize and a New York Times Notable Book. Thomas Jefferson, A Life, was a History Book Club Main Selection, was nominated for the Pulitzer and was one of Publishers Weekly's Ten Best Biographies of 1993.

George Washington, A Life was selected for Reader's Digest's Best Nonfiction of 1997 and World's Greatest Biographies. Randall recently received the lifetime Award of Merit of the American Revolution Round Table, only awarded three times in nearly half a century.

A contributing editor to MHQ: The Quarterly Journal of Military History, he has appeared on the Today Show, One on One, PBS, C-Span's Booknotes and Public Lives and the History Channel, and is a frequent guest on National Public Radio's All Things Considered, Talk of the Nation and To the Point.

Each biography puts us into another time and place, showing us how remarkable people faced their problems and, through their memories, provide us with touchstones between their times and ours.
