It's always wonderful to celebrate Sri Chinmoy's example of love and dedication to the highest goals of the United Nations. On this occasion we are celebrating:

- the 50th Anniversary of Sri Chinmoy's first talk to the UN community, November 1968.
- Dec. 2018 is also the anniversary of the final concert in the 50-Concert series Sri Chinmoy offered to commemorate the UN 50th anniversary in 1995.
- Between 11th and 12th November 1994 he had also composed 700 "Peace Blossom-Fragrance" poems to honour the upcoming 50th anniversary.

2

Sri Chinmoy's first talk at the United Nations, "The Song Universal," was offered the evening of 26 November 1968

The event was arranged by a husband and wife who felt Sri Chinmoy's message would be welcomed by the UN Community.

3

The invitation that went out had a beautiful photo of Sri Chinmoy with folded hands, with some biographical information as well.

In a moment (and as time allows) we will share some excerpts:

- from that special talk in 1968,
- followed by quotes related to the 1995 Concerts and
- some Nov 1994 “Peace-Blossom-Fragrance” poems.

Sri Chinmoy's First Talk to the UN community
in 1968:

This first talk is very significant for several reasons.

The Song Universal [excerpts]

The following excerpts are offered to mark the 50th anniversary of Sri Chinmoy's first talk to members of the UN community, "The Song Universal," given on 26 November 1968 at the Church Center for the United Nations.

The Song Universal is freedom.
Freedom from what? Freedom from limitations, freedom from imperfections and freedom from ignorance....

Freedom does not mean being away from home. Freedom means accepting and feeling the entire world as one's real home, as one's very own....

Our inner realisation and outer action must run abreast. Our outer achievements should be the conscious and spontaneous revelation of our inner divinity.

Love, harmony, peace and oneness.
These are man's divine ideals. On the strength of his inner mounting flame, aspiration, man can easily, unerringly and spontaneously manifest these ideals of his in his human life, in every sphere of his life.

It is quite natural and proper that we should discover our God in and through our own religion. When we go deep within, we come to realise that there is only one religion, and that religion is man's inmost cry for God-realisation. In the hoary past, Asoka, the great

Sri Chinmoy meditates at the UN during a meeting of Sri Chinmoy "The Peace Meditation at the United Nations."

Emperor of India, sent missionaries to the corners of the globe with a profound message: "The basis of all religions is the same, wherever they are. Try to help them all you can, teach them all you can, and do not try to injure them."

Let each religion play the role of a flower.
Let us make a garland of these divine flowers and offer them at the Feet of God.
God will be pleased. We shall be fulfilled.

About Sri Chinmoy: Born in Bengal, India (now Bangladesh) in 1931, Sri Chinmoy came to New York in 1964 to dedicate himself to the cause of world peace. At the invitation of UN Secretary-General U Thant, in 1970, he began leading twice-weekly peace meditations for delegates and staff at UN Headquarters in New York. Until his passing in 2007, Sri Chinmoy offered his multifaceted inspiration to the UN community through meditations, concerts, lectures, art exhibits and programmes for peace, and members of Sri Chinmoy: The Peace Meditation at the United Nations endeavour to continue these activities to this day.

It was after this lecture on 26 November 1968 that Sri Chinmoy's relationship with UN Secretary-General U Thant started blossoming

At U Thant's request, his Chef de Cabinet C.V. Narasimhan interviewed Sri Chinmoy and spoke very highly of him to the Secretary-General.

UN Photo Secretary-General U Thant and C.V. Narasimhan

8

Narasimhan later conveyed messages between the two men, including U Thant's encouraging invitation, for the establishment of the Peace Meditation Group at the UN on 14 April 1970.

Sri Chinmoy meditates for peace at the United Nations during a meeting of the Peace Meditation Group.

9

Many years later, C.V. Narasimhan was a special guest at Sri Chinmoy's Peace Concert in the Dag Hammarskjold Auditorium on 6 Dec 1993 [coincidentally 25 years ago].

Sri Chinmoy and C.V. Narasimhan

Under-Secretary-General Narasimhan was very proud of his role, remarking that “In the early days when U Thant was Secretary-General, I had a little role to play in having this Meditation Centre led by Sri Chinmoy in the United Nations as part of our ongoing activities.”

Narasimhan

11

Sri Chinmoy called Narasimhan “U Thant’s dearest colleague, his most valued friend, his confidant.”

12

As a Buddhist and a Hindu, respectively, U Thant and Narasimhan both valued a spiritual approach to world affairs.

13

And it seems that from Sri Chinmoy's first talk at the UN, together with subsequent interchanges, they both felt that Sri Chinmoy would further and support their own spiritual views and visions of the United Nations

The Song Universal [excerpts]

The following excerpts are offered to mark the 50th anniversary of Sri Chinmoy's first talk to members of the UN community, "The Song Universal," given on 26 November 1968 at the Church Center for the United Nations.

Now we will read out a few excerpts from the 1968 historic talk “The Song Universal.”

About Sri Chinmoy: Born in Bengal, India (now Bangladesh) in 1931, Sri Chinmoy came to New York in 1964 to dedicate himself to the cause of world peace. Freedom - Accepting World

*The Song Universal is freedom. Freedom from what? Freedom from limitations, freedom from imperfections and freedom from ignorance....

*Freedom does not mean being away from home. Freedom means accepting and feeling the entire world as one's real home, as one's very own....

17

Realization – Action ; Achievement

Our inner realisation and outer action must run abreast.

Our outer achievements should be the conscious and spontaneous revelation of our inner divinity.

18

Ideals – Aspiration – Manifest

Love, harmony, peace and oneness. These are man's divine ideals.

On the strength of his inner mounting flame, aspiration, man can easily, unerringly and spontaneously manifest these ideals of his in his human life, in every sphere of his life.

One religion – Inmost cry. Help, Teach All

It is quite natural and proper that we should discover our God in and through our own religion. When we go deep within, we come to realise that there is only one religion, and that religion is man's inmost cry for God-realisation....

Introduction to Sri Chinmoy's 50-Concert Tour offered to commemorate the 50th Anniversary of the UN in 1995

As mentioned earlier, December was also the anniversary of the final concert in the 50-Concert series that Sri Chinmoy offered to commemorate the 50th Anniversary of the UN in 1995.

That year also marked the 25th anniversary of the Peace Meditation Group at the UN.

23

The first concert was held in Myanmar, birthplace of U Thant, and

As part of the series, Sri Chinmoy also performed in many prestigious venues, including the UN General Assembly Hall Lobby, with audiences as large as 10,000 in Washington, DC, 13,000 in Montreal and 15,000 in Prague.

26

We will now share a few excerpts from Sri Chinmoy's inspiring dedications and comments made at the Concerts.

Excerpts read by current UN workers and friends.

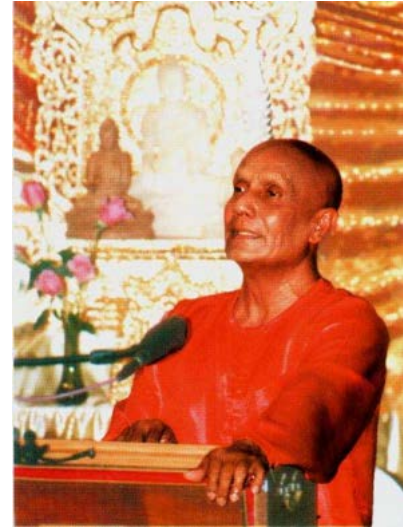

27

5 July 1995 O Supreme Pilot
of the United Nations,
do awaken the life,
illumine the mind
and bless the heart
of the United Nations.
Today's Peace Concert I am offering to the light-thirsty mind and peace-hungry heart
of the United Nations.

28

9 August 1995 As the human in us wants greatness-heights and the Divine in us wants goodness-depths, even so, the earthly mind of the United Nations wants world-acceptance and world-acclaim, and the Heavenly heart of the United Nations wants self-sacrifice and world peace.

29

17 August 1995,
O United Nations,
the Absolute Supreme blessed you
With His most precious Dream:
a world-onenesshunger.

30

19 August 1995 O soul of the United Nations, do bring to the fore your indomitable will-power to transform the earth-bound consciousness of humanity into a Heaven-free consciousness....

the Absolute Lord Supreme has entrusted you with His Vision Supreme to change the face and fate of mankind.

His own Promise in and through you
 He will without fail fulfil at His own choice Hour

31

25 November 1995

One hundred fifty instruments
 I shall play today.
 I shall offer my gratitude in one hundred and fifty ways to the Supreme for creating the United Nations, which is the main instrument to bring about world peace.
 I am trying to be of service
 to His main instrument,

32

We all have imperfections;
the United Nations also has imperfections.

These imperfections must not ruin our determination, eagerness and enthusiasm.

Let us try to take these imperfections as extra opportunities to make ourselves absolutely perfect by transforming them into divine realities.....

33

Introduction to 700 “Peace-Blossom-Fragrance” poems to honour UN’ 50th anniversary .

Between 11th and 12th November 1994 Sri Chinmoy composed 700
“Peace-Blossom-Fragrance” poems to honour the upcoming 50th anniversary of the United Nations.

34

The page borders on the “Peace-Blossom-Fragrance” printed book were composed of birds selected from a series of “Dream-Freedom-Peace Birds” drawn by Sri Chinmoy beginning in 1992.

35

We hope the selections of Peace poems presented give a glimpse of the variety, depth and feeling for the concept of peace as experienced and shared by Sri Chinmoy

“Keep peace-dream Alive!”;

“Change stubborn mind”;

“Patience-preparation”;

“Not retire, Aspire”;

“Peace of Here, Now”

Some short phrases invoke an inner commitment also reflected in Sri Chinmoy's Offering of Peace Meditations
to the World Body for decades.

“Peace not comfort”;

“Find sterling Qualities,

“responsibility for peace”;

Fruitful ideal:

accept imperfections

For transformation”

37

Through artistic and poetic expressions of Peace
he brought together members of the international community in silent dedication to the ideal of a global oneness-family.

At the Poetry Reading Celebrating the United Nations Year of the Dialogue Among Civilizations, held at the United Nations on 29 March 2001, Sri Chinmoy is introduced by Master of Ceremonies Vijaya Claxton, Vice President of the United Nations SRC Society of Writers.

38

2 Goodness Is
peace-drop.

3. Oneness Is
peace-sea.

39

32. I enjoy *peace
Only when I am not afraid

Of changing my stubborn mind.

“They shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks.
 Nation shall not lift up sword against nation.
 Neither shall they learn war anymore.”

41

88. O truth-seeker and God-lover,
 You have only one task
 to perform:

You have to keep Humanity’s sacred peace-dream Alive.

42

157. When humility exits
From the mind-gate,

Peace is compelled to exit
From the heart-gate.

humility
Exit →
Mind Gate

Peace
MUST Exit → Heart Gate

166. Love without peace

Is a joint Dance
Of stupidity
and absurdity.

Love (-) Peace

Stupidity (+) Absurdity
Dance

201.

Peace I get

When my mind
Laughs at me Powerfully.

45

208. To feel peace,

I shall not climb up to The mountaintop.

I shall not sit at the foot
Of the mountain.

I shall just enter into
My heart-nest.

THE GOLDEN FLUTE

A sea of peace and joy and light
Beyond my reach I know.
In me the storm-tossed weeping night
Finds room to rage and flow.

I cry aloud, but all in vain—
I helpless, the earth unkind!
What soul of might can share my pain?
Death-dart alone I find.

A raft am I on the sea of Time,
My oars are washed away.
How can I hope to reach the Clime
Of God's eternal Day?

But hark! I hear Thy golden Flute,
Its notes bring the Summit down.
Now safe am I, O Absolute!
Gone death! gone night's stark frown!

— Song by Sri Chinmoy

Peace
Becomes a reality

Only after endless Patience-preparation.

47

388.

Peace I feel not
When I long to retire
From the world.

Peace I feel
When I long to aspire
For the world.

48

In conclusion...

Silent rededication to the highest goals of the United Nations

Religious representatives and guest speakers joining in silent rededication.

467.

I do not need the peace Of the stars and planets
Of the ages.

I need the peace
Of the flowing and glowing
Here and now.

49

548. Be sure
That what you want is *Peace
And not comfort.

570. Spend considerable time
In finding sterling qualities In others,
Rather than in finding Their blazing faults.
Your mind will be full Of peace-blossoms.

694.

If we do not have the feeling of Collective responsibility for peace,

Then peace will never be a reality,

Either in the heart of today
 Or in the life of tomorrow.

51

696. What an absurd idea:
 The mind wants to achieve peace
 By denouncing
The world's imperfections.

What a fruitful ideal:
 The heart wants to achieve peace
 By accepting
The world's imperfections
 For their total transformation.

“To the end I will love the United Nations “ part 1

Whoever leads the United Nations should use only the heart,

The world will feel that the UN has a sincere heart.

That sincere heart will be able to gain the confidence of the world.

Now, because of unfortunate things that are taking place in various countries, the world does not have the same feeling,
the same sympathetic heart.
