

UNITED NATIONS DAY

24 October 1982

"The outer message
of the United Nations is peace.

The inner message
of the United Nations
is love.

The inmost message
of the United Nations
is oneness."

—Sri Chinmoy

UNITED NATIONS

the Heart-Home of the World-Body

"The United Nations is—in fact as well as theory—indispensable to peace."

—Trygve Lie
United Nations Day, 1950

"The United Nations was born out of a great hope and was inspired by expectations of a bright future. The United Nations stands today strengthened by the dramatic approach to universality."

—Dag Hammarskjöld
United Nations Day, 1960

"There is so much good in men and in nations. The interests that unite us are far more significant than those that divide us."

—U Thant
United Nations Day, 1970

"With the support of all the Governments and peoples of the world, our task is to go forward with determination to ensure a better life in larger freedom for all mankind."

—Kurt Waldheim
United Nations Day, 1980

"The United Nations embodies the movement for peace. It is a movement which calls for the courage to understand the aspirations and interests of others. Above all, it calls for utmost and unreserved commitment. On United Nations Day, I appeal to all to make this commitment afresh."

—Javier Perez de Cuellar
