Peace Run for the United Nations

Saturday, 5 April 1997

People of many countries run together and carry flags of the UN and its Member States, symbolizing the spirit of cooperation as nations strive along the road of peace.

START: 9 a.m. - Lockheed Martin (formerly UNISYS), Lake Success, Long Island (former home of the United Nations.) Parking available at start.

COURSE: 18.5 miles. Marcus Ave. west → Little Neck Parkway north → Northern Blvd. west → (brief stop at the Unisphere in Flushing Meadows Corona Park - site of early sessions of the UN General Assembly) → enter Manhattan by the Queensboro bridge → 2nd Ave. south → 42nd Street east → 1st Avenue north.

LAST MILE: 1:10 pm - 2nd Ave. at 59th St., Manhattan

FINISH: 1:30 pm - United Nations Headquarters, Manhattan

LOGISTICS: The Peace Run is not a race. Runners stay together in one group with police escort. You may join at any point along the route (see schedule opposite) and run as far as you wish. Pace is moderate. For safety reasons, runners who cannot maintain a ten minute per mile pace are requested to please participate only in the last mile (see above). Refreshments at stopping points and at finish. Vehicles with water and space for passengers and personal belongings will accompany the group at all times. Rain or shine!

REGISTRATION: Pre-registration preferred, postmarked by Tuesday, 1 April. Registration accepted day of Run. No entrance fee. Please indicate flag preference - UN or any country. We will supply miniature flags. T-shirts available for $10.
