U.N. Delegates Wives Play Tennis Tournament In Queens

Six wives of UN delegates graced a private tennis court in Jamaica, Queens Saturday, August 3 for a round-robin tennis tournament and clinic.

The ladies were guests of Sri Chinmoy, the Indian spiritual master, who for the last fifteen years, has directed the Peace Meditations at the United Nations.

Mrs. Anthony Godson of the United Kingdom won the tournament 5-4 over Mrs. Yvonne Maycock, wife of Deputy Permanent Rep. Ernest Besley Maycock of Barbados. Third place went to Flushing resident Jenner Findlay from Saint Vincent and the Grenadines.

"Love And Serve"

Welcoming each UN guest with roses and gifts, Sri Chinmoy said, "Tennis is a matter of love and serve and then comes the victory. Our goal, your goal, humanity's goal is love and serve. Tennis is a most significant game because it reminds us always of our goals here on earth."

"I am praying," he said, "for your husbands' continued success in their outer lives and for their continuous progress in their inner lives."

Also participating were Mrs. Jane Tin Pe, wife of the Deputy Perm. Rep. to the UN from Burma; Counsellor Fanyna Glynn of Honduras; Mrs. Geeta Verma, wife of Deputy Perm. Rep. Vinay Verma of India and Uganda delegate Miss Elizabeth Anyoti.
