

Tribute to peace

Civil rights activist Coretta Scott King, left, and New York resident Sri Chinmoy share a moment together after they received the Gandhi Universal Harmony Award Friday night in New York. The award is presented by the Indian cultural organization, the Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan, in recognition of dedicated efforts to promote universal harmony, understanding and peace.