UN, UN, UN, UN!
You are the Lord's Sun-Vision Plan.
We know your soul, its beauty's flow,
A world-body's translucent glow.

to commemorate the National Day of Prayer, on 24 Jul 1975, Sri Chinmoy presided over an Interfaith gathering of representatives from the six major religions. The New York Times reported: 'most representative gathering of religious leaders ever held in the city'.

transliteration

Anor aniyān mahato mahiyan atmasya jantor nihito guhayam

translation

Smaller than the smallest life, larger than the infinite Vast,
The soul breathes in the secret heart of man.

comment

The soul is God's eternal child and man's great-grandfather.

As God's eternal child, the soul unceasingly plays.

As man's eternal grandfather, the soul perpetually enjoys rest.

The musical score is written in treble clef with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and a 4/4 time signature. The tempo is marked 'Moderate-fast' with a quarter note equal to 120 beats per minute. The lyrics are placed below the notes, with some words connected by hyphens and lines indicating where they should be sung. The final line of the score includes first and second endings.

O dreamers of peace, come,
Let us walk together.

O lovers of peace, come,
Let us run together.

O servers of peace, come
Let us grow together.

The words to this song were featured when members of the diplomatic community joined in setting a Guinness World Record for the poem recited in the most languages in 24 hours (203 languages), on 10 April 2014 at Dag Hammarskjöld Plaza, United Nations environs, in conjunction with the opening ceremony of the Oneness-Home Peace Run.
